ORDINANCE

DENTAL PHOTOGRAPHY- SHORT TERM COURSE

The department of Periodontology, Faculty of Dental Sciences is now accepting applications for the upcoming Certified Course in Dental Photography. Here are a few details that you must know to understand the relevance and admission related details of the course.

Department of Periodontology

Serial No.	Contents	Description
1	Title of the course	Short term course on 'Dental Photography'
2	About the course	This intensive Six-day course (Lectures and workshop) trains dental interns, postgraduates and dental practitioners in the fundamentals of dental photography along with its various techniques and uses. As, no matter how meticulously one articulates or writes clinical notes of an examination, a photograph will communicate the clinical scenario in a few seconds. Besides offering indisputable photo documentation, pictures are probably the most powerful learning method for clinical dentistry and self-development. A series of images allow assessment, diagnosis, planning, delivery of treatment, and follow up that no other medium can offer. Furthermore, photography is a vital communication tool between patients, fellow colleagues, specialists and technicians for discussing multi-disciplinary and for complex therapies. In addition, pre and postoperative, as well as procedural images provide an invaluable record if a therapy fails to yield the desired results or satiate patients' expectations.
